

Holy Cross Catholic Parish

Twinning with St. Patrick's Parish

Mission Statement: Rooted in the community of Gordon Head and the University, in communion with the Roman Catholic Church, Holy Cross Parish serves the people of God by sharing, teaching and living the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

SUNDAY - October 17, 2021
Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We want you to do for us whatever we ask. Nice conversation starter! In the Gospel we hear today – as we have been hearing these past few weeks – we get yet another story of Disciples behaving badly, of Disciples not getting it, of Disciples missing the point that seems so obvious to us who listen with well-trained ears. Jesus has a different concept of "greatness" than "the world" does, than his disciples did... This is a recurring theme in the Gospels. In this chapter 10 of Mark's Gospel Jesus is fielding some pretty hard questions. That's what we've been listening to for the past three weeks. Jesus put on the spot with hard questions. Do you remember them? Pharisees, Rich young Man, his own disciples. But notice the dynamic in all three instances: Jesus listens to the question, better listens to the one who asks the questions, and then invites them to go beneath the surface to a much deeper reality.

Jesus listens to the question, or the questioner, reads the heart of the person and takes them to a deeper place: What's the question you would like to ask Jesus? The question I am asking is Jesus, why do things in life so often "unravel"? Relationships between good people, the things in life that we invest ourselves in, our work, our church, our society. This unraveling question is coming from my own heart this week, my pastoral realities this week has led to asking Jesus some deep questions: how do I respond? I don't always; I listen because I am called to listen. I just listen ... as Jesus listens.... And takes me to a deeper place. Imagine our lord and our God so attentive to others who don't get it. Jesus own life is unraveling. His hopes and dreams, everything he has invested in, save God. Ultimately God will be the thread that binds. Jesus speaks to us of his solidarity with the worlds' suffering, and our suffering. Jesus takes us to a place where he asks us to bind up wounds and be there as servants. What is that place? LOVE!!!! Love is the space where God and I live together in one being.

That is the question Jesus puts to James and John; that is the question he puts to all of us, however we come to God and whatever we end up asking. "What do you wish?" is the question God asks us. Not "what have others taught you to want?" or "what do you think you ought to ask for?" but "what do you wish?" God asks that question because – hard as it may sometimes be to believe – that is what God wants so much to give to each of us: what will truly bring us happiness and wholeness, healing and a sense of purpose. We do not know at the beginning what following Christ will mean for us, and the way you do it will be different from the way I do. But however our lives become shaped, we trust ourselves to the promise: if we truly give of ourselves, God will not disappoint but the world will. Gandhi said it best...the things that will destroy us are politics without principle; pleasure without conscience; wealth without work; knowledge without character; business without morality; science without humanity; and worship without sacrifice.

Blessings as we ponder the mystery,

Father William

Tenant Starter Kits: Last Spring the Social Ecological Justice Committee responded to a plea from Our Place to collect 50 tenant starter kits for the unhoused moving into tiny homes. That quota has been filled. Our Place works in cooperation with Victoria Cool Aid Society which operates the same program. Cool Aid offers services to Victoria's most vulnerable. These include accessible, affordable housing, emergency shelter, health and dental care and employment assistance. Please see the list of items needed to complete a starter kit in the foyer. Once you have checked off a box please bring the item (s) to the parish hall or drop them off in the specified bin the in the Church foyer. New or gently used items are best (some items are specified as New Only). ### VOLUNTEER CHEFS NEEDED FOR UNIVERSITY SUPPER

The first of this year's UVic/Camosun student suppers last Sunday was a great success, with 30 students participating. Fr. William celebrated Mass beforehand. We are planning another supper for Sunday November 7th at 5:00 pm in the Parish Hall. We need volunteers to drop off home-made lasagna, or salad by 4:30 pm on that day. I will put a sign-up sheet in the church foyer this Sunday with details, but if you are not attending Mass in person and wish to help, just e-mail me. This outreach has been very popular with university students in past years, prior to the hiatus caused by the pandemic, and it is a good way for our parishioners to show community with them. We are planning suppers for December and January as well, details to follow in a subsequent Bulletin. Many thanks! John Oleson (jpoleson@uvic.ca).

RECONCILIATION CORNER

In this age when climate change (droughts, forest fires, floods, heat waves) poses a real threat to our food security, scientists are turning to the traditional agricultural knowledge of Indigenous peoples for solutions. Swewépepmc land and seed steward Tiffany Traverse partners with local food growers in the Peace River region and students in the UBC Faculty of Land and Food Systems to identify more resilient and adaptable food sources in the face of a warming planet.
